Featherlight Composite Construction
Crafted with precision, the UAG Metropolis case offers featherlight composite construction for your iPad, providing substantial protection without extra weight. Designed to withstand real-world drop scenarios, it grants peace of mind whether you're at home or exploring new terrains.

Built-In 360-Degree Rotating Hand Strap
Functionality meets security with the built-in 360-degree rotating hand strap. This feature allows you to handle your iPad effortlessly from any angle. The hook and loop fastener ensures a firm, secure grip, enhancing your device’s portability and convenience.

Non-Slip Tactile Grip Exterior
Engineered for secure handling, the non-slip tactile grip exterior ensures you hold your iPad confidently. With this feature, accidental slips are a thing of the past, empowering you to carry your iPad wherever your endeavors lead you with assurance.

Dedicated Apple Pencil Storage
Never be without your essential tool. The Metropolis case features integrated storage for your Apple Pencil, keeping it secure and always within reach. This thoughtfully designed element boosts your productivity and creativity, ensuring your Apple Pencil is ready whenever inspiration strikes.

Wide Compatibility with iPad Models
Versatility is key with the UAG Metropolis case, specifically designed to fit iPad 10.9" 10th Gen and 11" A16 models from both 2022 and 2025. The case provides a seamless fit and integration, accommodating multiple model numbers for your convenience.
