Color LCD Sketch Pad
The myFirst Sketch Pro Neo boasts a large color LCD screen that brings your child's drawings to vivid life. It's an ideal tool for everything from taking school notes, doodling, sketching, to playing games like tic-tac-toe. This feature offers a dynamic platform for limitless creativity.

Built to Last
Crafted with durable materials and rounded rubberized corners, this drawing computer is robust enough to endure the adventures of on-the-go kids. Its resilience makes it a reliable companion for every artistic journey, whether at home, school, or outdoors.

Pen-On-Paper Experience
Experience the familiar sensation of writing on paper with the added smoothness of digital creation. The myFirst Sketch Pro Neo provides a seamless and satisfying drawing or writing experience that enhances usability and elevates creative potential.

Anti-Glare & Clear Screen
Designed with an anti-glare feature, your child's artwork remains clear and vibrant under any lighting conditions. This thoughtful design significantly enhances the user experience by ensuring smooth and uninterrupted drawing sessions.

Portable for On-the-Go Works
Compact and lightweight, the Sketch Pro Neo is designed for easy transportation. It is perfectly sized for a backpack, making it a must-have accessory for creative sessions wherever your child goes.
