Stable, durable construction
The HiRise provides a stable base for your Apple Watch, so you can tap snooze in the morning without moving the stand.

Quick charging puck installation and removal
Insert or remove your charging puck in seconds, making it easy to take your charger with you when you travel.

Suitable for all band types
The stand accommodates all Apple Watch band types, including closed metal bracelets, so you can charge your watch without changing its band.

Protective silicone and leather details
Silicone and leather details help protect your Apple Watch and its band while it rests on the stand.

Clean, modern design
The HiRise's clean lines and silver finish make it a stylish addition to your bedside table.
