Twelve South Journal iPhone XR Luxury Full Grain Leather Case with Drop Guard and Hands-Free Stand - Cognac Cognac

Twelve South Journal iPhone XR Luxury Full Grain Leather Case with Drop Guard and Hands-Free Stand is a premium folio that wraps your iPhone XR in rich, full-grain leather while adding the everyday practicality of a wallet and viewing stand. Elegant, protective, and designed to age beautifully, this is the case that makes your iPhone feel like a handcrafted accessory, not just a piece of tech.

- Full-grain leather wallet folio, inside and out
- Built-in Drop Guard shell protects from bumps and drops
- Integrated 3-card wallet with ID window and cash pocket
- Hands-free viewing stand for videos, calls and more
- Ages beautifully like fine leather goods over time

Full-grain leather wallet folio, inside and out

Journal is crafted as a true all-leather folio, not a plastic case with a flap tacked on. The exterior and interior are both wrapped in premium full-grain leather, carefully tanned and stitched for a luxurious feel in the hand. This is the kind of leather that would be at home alongside your favorite bag or designer wallet, turning your iPhone XR into a refined everyday carry item rather than just a smartphone in a case.

Built-in Drop Guard shell protects from bumps and drops

Inside Journal you will find a precision-molded protective shell that securely cradles your iPhone XR. This integrated shell is designed to absorb and deflect everyday shocks, bumps, and minor drops, helping to keep your screen and edges safe. With Drop Guard protection, you get the peace of mind of a protective case wrapped in the sophistication of full-grain leather.

Integrated 3-card wallet with ID window and cash pocket

Leave your traditional wallet at home. Journal features a built-in wallet with three card slots, including a dedicated ID window so you can show your identification without removing it. A full-length cash pocket lets you carry notes, receipts, or tickets neatly out of sight. It is a slim, integrated solution that keeps your most important daily essentials together with your iPhone XR in one elegant folio.

Hands-free viewing stand for videos, calls and more

Journal folds into a convenient stand whenever you need hands-free viewing. Prop your iPhone XR at a comfortable angle to watch videos, browse, join video calls, or keep an eye on notifications while you work. The folio cover also doubles as a clever privacy and sun shield, helping block glare when taking photos or keeping your screen more private from nearby eyes when you are on the go.

Ages beautifully like fine leather goods over time

The full-grain leather of Journal develops a unique patina the more you carry it. Over time, the case will take on the character of its owner, with subtle color changes and texture that reflect everyday use. Much like a fine pair of leather shoes or a premium leather bag, Journal only becomes more attractive and personal as it ages, making it a long-term companion for your iPhone XR rather than a disposable accessory.
