Experience a seamless digital workspace with the Twelve South StayGo USB-C Hub – the port expansion your MacBook Neo deserves. Sleek, understated, and dressed in a white finish that pairs flawlessly with Neo's premium aesthetic, this is the hub that feels like it was made for your setup. Whether you're at your desk or on the move, StayGo gives you every connection you need without breaking your flow.

- The Port Solution for MacBook Neo Users, everything your Neo doesn't have, in one elegant hub
- Designed to Match with a white finish that complements MacBook Neo's premium look perfectly
- Eight Ports including 3× USB-A, 4K HDMI, Ethernet, USB-C, SD and Micro-SD
- Pass-Through Power will charge your MacBook Neo while using every port simultaneously
- Ready for the Desk and the Road with the 1-meter cable for clean setups and a bonus travel cord for on the go

The Port Solution for MacBook Neo Users

MacBook Neo is built for those who want the best – but like every premium ultrabook, it keeps the port count lean. StayGo fills that gap with eight versatile connections that slot seamlessly into your workflow. From external drives to wired internet to 4K displays, StayGo transforms your Neo into a fully equipped workstation the moment you plug in. No adapters, no dongles, no workarounds.

Designed to Match

This isn't just about function – it's about fit. The StayGo USB-C Hub's clean white finish and understated form factor complement MacBook Neo's design language beautifully. On your desk, it looks like it belongs there. Because it does.

Eight Ports, Zero Compromises

Three USB-A ports for keyboards, mice and drives. 4K HDMI for a stunning external display. Ethernet for a fast, reliable wired connection. USB-C for pass-through charging. SD and Micro-SD card slots for photographers and creatives. Every port you reach for – covered.

Pass-Through Power

Expanding your ports shouldn't mean sacrificing battery life. StayGo's USB-C pass-through power port keeps your MacBook Neo charging while every other port is hard at work. Full connectivity and full power, without a single trade-off.

Ready for the Desk and the Road

At home or in the office, the 1-meter cable keeps your connections tucked away and your workspace clean. On the move, the compact travel cord stored right inside the hub means you never need to pack anything extra. One hub, two modes, zero hassle.
