Twelve South SurfacePad for iPhone XS Max - Cognac

SurfacePad from Twelve South is an ultra-thin genuine leather folio for iPhone XS Max. It protects the front and back without compromising your phone's slim profile, with two card slots and a built-in stand for everyday convenience.

- Ultra-thin genuine leather folio for iPhone XS Max
- Built-in stand for hands-free viewing and FaceTime
- Two interior slots for essential cards
- Lightweight front and back protection
- Secure, residue-free adhesive and automatic wake and sleep

Ultra-thin genuine leather folio for iPhone XS Max
SurfacePad wraps your iPhone XS Max in genuine leather for a refined look and a pleasing feel. Its minimalist design adds protection without bulk, keeping your phone comfortable to carry.

Built-in stand for hands-free viewing and FaceTime
Flex the back of SurfacePad to form a stand that holds your iPhone XS Max in landscape orientation. Watch videos, stream your favourite shows or make FaceTime calls hands-free, without carrying a separate stand.

Two interior slots for essential cards
Two discreet slots inside the front cover keep essentials such as an ID and a bank card within easy reach. Alongside Apple Pay, they can help you travel lighter and leave your wallet at home.

Lightweight front and back protection
Lightweight and as thin as a credit card, SurfacePad protects the front and back of your iPhone. When closed, the leather cover helps shield the screen from contact with keys and surfaces, reducing everyday scratches. The back panel protects the rear glass from scratches and scuffs, while the slim design slips easily into a pocket or bag.

Secure, residue-free adhesive and automatic wake and sleep
SurfacePad attaches securely to the back of your iPhone XS Max and stays in place during daily use. It lifts away cleanly when removed, leaving no sticky residue. Opening the cover automatically wakes your iPhone, while closing it puts the phone to sleep, helping to save battery power.
