UAG Civilian with Magnet for Samsung S25 Ultra - Black

Urban Armor Gear presents the UAG Civilian with Magnet for Samsung S25 Ultra—Black, a cutting-edge protective case designed for the modern adventurer. This sleek and rugged case offers unparalleled protection without compromising on style or functionality.

- HyperCush™ technology for superior shock absorption
- 20 ft. (6 meters) drop protection
- Wireless charging compatible
- Precise cutout for S Pen access
- Traction grip and oversized tactile buttons

HyperCush™ Technology
The UAG Civilian case features our innovative HyperCush™ technology, engineered to dampen and disperse impact energy when your device collides with surfaces. This patent-pending design incorporates two shock-absorbing materials layered with a dynamic hexagon pattern, ensuring your Samsung S25 Ultra stays protected in even the most challenging environments.

Unmatched Drop Protection
With an impressive 20 ft. (6 meters) drop protection, the UAG Civilian case sets a new standard in mobile device safety. Our rigorous lab testing ensures that your phone remains secure and undamaged, even in the event of accidental drops from significant heights.

Wireless Charging Compatibility
Never compromise on convenience. The UAG Civilian case is designed to work seamlessly with most third-party wireless chargers, allowing you to power up your device without removing the case.

S Pen Accessibility
We understand the importance of your S Pen. That's why the UAG Civilian features a precise cutout, providing full and easy access to your S Pen whenever you need it.

Enhanced Grip and Control
The UAG Civilian case boasts a traction grip texture and oversized tactile buttons, offering improved handling and responsiveness. Navigate your device with confidence, even in challenging conditions.
