Military-grade drop protection tested to 1.8 m
The Essential Armor case is built to absorb shock from accidental drops and everyday impacts. Its military-grade drop protection has been tested for drops from 1.8 m, giving your iPhone 17 reliable protection for commuting, work, travel, and daily use.

Durable lightweight composite construction
High-quality durable composite materials protect the phone without adding unnecessary weight. The case keeps a lightweight profile, so the iPhone 17 remains comfortable in your hand or pocket.

Precise fit for iPhone 17
The case is designed specifically for iPhone 17, so it sits securely around the device. The fitted construction helps protect the edges and back while keeping the phone easy to use throughout the day.

Full access to buttons, ports, and cameras
Precise cutouts keep all buttons, ports, and cameras accessible while the case stays on. You can charge, use the camera, and control your phone without removing the case.

Textured grip for more secure handling
The ergonomic shape and textured surface help reduce slips during one-handed use. This gives you steadier control when taking photos, replying to messages, or carrying the phone between tasks.

MgSf Black design with a slim everyday profile
The MgSf Black finish matches the refined look of the iPhone 17 while adding practical protection. Its slim profile keeps the case suitable for everyday use without making the phone feel bulky.
