- Military-Grade Drop Protection

Stylish Design with Anti-Yellowing Properties
The UAG Google Pixel 9 Plyo Pro boasts a minimalist, crystal-clear finish that resists yellowing over time. Its transparent body, complemented by a raised perimeter, offers additional protection to your device's screen and camera. This thoughtful design ensures your phone's true aesthetic shines through without compromising its safety.

Lightweight and Shock Absorbing
Crafted with a durable PC backplate and a shock-absorbing TPU frame, this case offers robust protection while maintaining a slim profile. Its impact-resistant soft core and reinforced edges collaboratively safeguard your device from accidental drops and bumps, ensuring peace of mind with every use.

Compatible with Magnetic Charging
Featuring an integrated magnet module, the case guarantees seamless connectivity and faster wireless charging. Compatible with popular magnetic chargers, including MagSafe, it also supports most third-party wireless charging devices, providing added convenience for everyday use.

Enhanced Functionality
Experience the ultra-responsive oversized tactile buttons that deliver a crisp and clean click feel. The case includes integrated anchor points for a lanyard, enhancing on-the-go functionality. Although the lanyard is not included, the design offers compatibility for added utility whenever needed.

Military-Grade Drop Protection
Tested to withstand drops of up to 4.8 meters, the UAG armor shell paired with the impact-resistant core meets military-grade standards. This ensures your device remains safe from accidental falls and rough handling, offering premium protection no matter where life takes you.
