Unbeatable Protection

The UAG Metropolis SE case features a tough and rugged silhouette that provides your iPad Air with unbeatable protection. Its featherlight composite construction and soft, impact-resistant core shield your tablet from serious drops and accidental falls. With impact-resistant corners, it safeguards your device from scratches and dents, ensuring it stays pristine and durable.

Convertible Folio Stand

Transform your iPad Air into a productivity powerhouse with the convertible folio cover that doubles as a stand. This thoughtful design allows for quick and easy adjustments, turning your tablet into a laptop at your convenience. Additionally, the auto wake/sleep feature ensures your device is always ready for action.

Apple Pencil Compatibility

For those who rely on their Apple Pencil, the UAG Metropolis SE has it covered. The case includes a designated holder for your Apple Pencil, ensuring it stays secure and accessible. It is also compatible with Apple Pencil Pairing and Charging, making it the perfect companion for creatives and note-takers.

Medical-Grade Sanitation

The UAG Metropolis SE is tested for medical environments, offering the ability to be sanitized with medical-grade wipes and disinfectants. This durability ensures that the case's integrity remains intact even after repeated cleaning, making it suitable for healthcare professionals and environments where hygiene is crucial.

Lightweight Design with Shoulder Strap Tether

Despite its robust protection, the UAG Metropolis SE maintains a featherlight design that doesn't weigh you down. For added convenience, it features thoughtful tether anchor points suitable for an adjustable shoulder strap. This makes transporting your tablet hassle-free, whether it's in use or stored away.
