Enhanced Impact Resistance

The UAG Scout case features a lightweight TPU construction with a distinctive armor shell, ensuring your device is well-protected against daily accidents. The impact-resistant soft core and chamfered corners offer superior drop protection, ensuring your Samsung Galaxy A56 remains in pristine condition. The oversized tactical buttons not only enhance the case's protection but also provide a satisfying click-feel, making device operation seamless and enjoyable.

Enhanced Functionality

Designed for those constantly on the move, the UAG Scout comes with a ruggedized non-slip grip. This grip ensures more secure handling, reducing the chances of accidental drops. The oversized tactical buttons enhance user interaction, delivering a crisp and clean click-feel every time you press them, providing ease of use and reliability.

Lanyard Anchor Points

For added security and convenience, the UAG Scout is equipped with integrated lanyard anchor points. Whether you're traveling or simply going about your day, these anchor points provide additional security by allowing you to attach a lanyard. Although the lanyard is not included, the case provides compatibility with most lanyard cards.

Military Drop Protection

Built to meet military drop-test standards (MIL STD 810G 516.6), the UAG Scout ensures your device can withstand the rigors of everyday use. Whether you're navigating through rugged terrains or bustling city streets, trust the UAG Scout to keep your Samsung Galaxy A56 safe from unexpected impacts and drops.

Model Compatibility

Please note, the UAG Scout is specifically designed to be compatible only with the Samsung Galaxy A56, Model Number: SM-A566. Ensure your device matches this specification for optimal protection and fit.
